The "Glass Eye" Divorce Case.— Judicial Decision.

Judgment has been delivered at Cincinatti in a remarkable action for divorce brought by Charles Krauss against his wife Katharine. He alleged that she had a glass eye and a false leg, and that as these imperfections did not become known to him until after the marriage, deception was practised upon him which entitled him to a divorce. He contended also that as he had not married a complete woman, as he had hoped to do, he should be released from his obligations. Judge Davis, before whom the case was heard, decided in favor of the wife and dismissed the petition. In giving judgment he said the wife had never been asked before marriage whether she had any physical defects, and consequently there could be no positive deceit. Dealing with the legal aspect of the case he said: "It is not unlawful for woman to attract mankind with devices and attachments used to improve the work of nature. Otherwise why should not false hair and other falsities, peculiar to females, be made a ground of divorce?"—Exchange.

Davitt Shows His Hatred for England.

BERLIN, April 21.—Herr Wilhelm Leibknecht, the Socialist leader, has received a letter from Michael Davitt, National member of the British Parliament for South Mayo. In it the writer says he is able to confirm from his own knowledge the charges recently brought in the London Truth against the London Missionary Society by Lloyd Osborne, stepson of the late Robert Louis Stevenson, who characterized the society's antagonism to Mataafa, a Roman Catholic, as the "whole cause of the quarrel" in Samoa.

Mr. Davitt describes Chief Justice Chambers as "nominally an American but in reality an Englishman, who is anxious to promote an Anglo-American alliance." He expresses hatred of England and warns the Germans "against making the American nation answerable for the blameworthy attitude of one or two persons."

"All the trouble," says Mr. Davitt, "is due to English intrigues. You may rely upon the United States settling matters honorably and fairly as soon as they know the real origin of the riots."

Meant Round Trips, Perhaps.

The Bookman has heard of a Scotch professor who had been advocating the advantages of athletic exercise. "The Roman youths," he cried, "used to swim three times across the Tiber before breakfast." The Scotch professor, noticing one of his auditors grinning, exclaimed: "Mr. McAllister, why do you smile? We shall be glad to share your amusement."

The canny Scot replied, "I was just thinking, sir, that the Roman youths must have left their clothes on the wrong bank."

At the Anchor.

Captain Carlyle states that the Beck Beer is paid for this term. At the celebrated Anchor he now quenches the thirst of his customers with high grade Jesse Moore whiskey, or with Cyrus Noble's white malt whiskey, which mixed with plain soda makes the famous drink known as High Ball.
